

Name: _____

Date: _____

Kinds of Sentences

Add the end mark. Then circle: telling, asking or exclaiming.

1. Do cats like warm milk

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

2. Where is my yellow hat

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

3. Oh no, the balloon popped

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

4. Did you see the rainbow

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

5. Will the bus come soon

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

6. Wow, the fireworks lit up the sky

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

7. Yum, this cake is delicious

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

8. Sam kicked the ball over the fence

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

9. Snow covered the quiet town

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

10. Our class visited the museum

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

Kinds of Sentences: Answer Key

1. Do cats like warm milk? (asking)
2. Where is my yellow hat? (asking)
3. Oh no, the balloon popped! (exclaiming)
4. Did you see the rainbow? (asking)
5. Will the bus come soon? (asking)
6. Wow, the fireworks lit up the sky! (exclaiming)
7. Yum, this cake is delicious! (exclaiming)
8. Sam kicked the ball over the fence. (telling)
9. Snow covered the quiet town. (telling)
10. Our class visited the museum. (telling)

Tip: a telling sentence said with strong feeling can also end with !