

Name: _____

Date: _____

Kinds of Sentences

Add the end mark. Then circle: telling, asking or exclaiming.

1. Hooray, I won the race

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

2. The purple butterfly landed on a leaf

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

3. Can we visit the zoo on Saturday

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

4. Birds sing in the tall trees

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

5. Who ate the last cookie

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

6. What does the owl eat

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

7. Is the soup hot

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

8. Hooray, our team scored a goal

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

9. The clever fox crept past the farm

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

10. Wow, the volcano erupted

☐

telling

asking

exclaiming

Kinds of Sentences: Answer Key

1. Hooray, I won the race! (exclaiming)
2. The purple butterfly landed on a leaf. (telling)
3. Can we visit the zoo on Saturday? (asking)
4. Birds sing in the tall trees. (telling)
5. Who ate the last cookie? (asking)
6. What does the owl eat? (asking)
7. Is the soup hot? (asking)
8. Hooray, our team scored a goal! (exclaiming)
9. The clever fox crept past the farm. (telling)
10. Wow, the volcano erupted! (exclaiming)

Tip: a telling sentence said with strong feeling can also end with !